Nick Hillier appointed Vice President Asia Pacific

Employee engagement technology company REFFIND Limited (ASX:RFN) has appointed IT sales and management expert Nick Hillier as its Vice President for the Asia Pacific region.

Most recently Mr Hillier held a senior role with multinational IT giant Hewlett Packard Company (HP), where he managed sales across HP servers, converged infrastructure and business critical systems for the South Pacific region.

Mr Hillier is also the former General Manager of Sales for ASX300 data centre provider NEXTDC. Prior to this he maintained long tenures with Dell and Acer in a variety of managerial and business development positions.

Mr Hillier will be responsible for a number of sales and marketing activities including business development, account management, strategy and customer experience. He will commence the new role as of 10 August 2015, reporting to REFFIND Co-Founder and Managing Director Jamie Pride.

"Nick is an outstanding appointment to drive REFFIND forward from both a management and leadership perspective," said Mr Pride.

"He brings impressive experience, expertise and professionalism which we expect will translate into high quality outcomes across the board."
